Janet Kile | Costume Designer

Columbia, SC

I wish I'd known: That your sister will eventually stop torturing you.

Favorite trick or treat candy: Candy Corn (or is that Kandy Korn?)

My day job: (where the real money is) Hair designer. I do costuming on the side.

My favorite possession: Hmmmm - possession - I guess my computer

My hometown: The metropolis known as Ridgecrest, California

I'm thinking about: Getting toupee tape for beards for "Fiddler"

Words I live by: 1. you can't make sense out of nonsense 2: Sounds great! I'm in.

I can't live without: Dark chocolate

I am most proud of: My good friends

What keeps me awake at night: Lists, lists, lists

One thing I never want to do again: Nothing comes to mind - ok , yeah - that would be high school.

If I could be totally wild, I would: Not printable.

I am guilty of: Being a bit anal retentive on occasion (usually to do with sewing).

Right now I'm reading: About to start The Choir by Joanna Trollope

The one item that has changed my life: Bill of sale for my half of a house.

Last major purchase: Does an airplane ticket count?? A 2-week-notice flight to Italy

The nickname I wish I had: Francesca

My theme song: Right now- I'd say Hawaii Five-0.

If I had a vanity plate on my car, it would say: Random letters that don't actually spell anything - I've always wanted to do that!

If I could do it all over again: I'm good - wouldn't.

My favorite body part: Is that mine or someone else's??? Either way, I would have to say the mouth.

The food I could eat every day: Love me some yummy toast in the morning. Walnuts too. and a cappuccino.

The most important thing I ever lost: Ooh- that's a hard one

The best thing I ever won: My freedom.

My best friend says I am: Fun and relaxed.

I still can't get the hang of: Math - ARGH!!!!

The world would be a better place, if only: It wasn't run by liars, cheaters and thieves - oh well- maybe next time 'round.

I'd like to learn to: Speak Italian (I'm trying!!).

Something most people don't know about me: I really want to dance Salsa/Latin dances.

My mother always said: Leave a place cleaner than you found it.

The worst idea I've ever had: Staying quite as long as I did with my significant other.

The smartest woman I know: That's REALLY hard- there is a - I don't know - 6 way tie for first place.

My first job: Flippin' hamburgers.

What are you most vain about? Hmm - hmmmm - I don't THINK I'm vain (is that vain of me??).

Best Halloween Costume I've ever worn: Jeannie (from I Dream of Jeannie) - boy, was I brave (what WAS I thinkin???)

Halloween Costume I never want to see again: I would have to say the STANDARD cats and witches. Come on people!! Out of the box!

Five tips for making a better costume:

1. Get out of "the box"
2. Get out of "the box"
3. Use stuff around the house (buying/renting a full outfit is just plain boring people)
4. Get out of "the box"
5. Get your thinking caps on and have fun. (personally, I LOVE puns).

Always... go for it .

Never... say never. (sorry - know that's trite but it's TRUE!!)
